

Earniece D. Young
Northern Plains Regional Representative

Ms. Earniece D. Young is a Supervisory District Conservationist in Burlington, Kansas. She was born and raised in the rural eastern Arkansas farming community of LaGrange. She is a 2006 graduate of the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Regulatory Science with an emphasis in Agriculture. She currently has over 15 years of federal government experience with the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) and has acquired extensive work experience in cropland, forestland, pastureland, CAFO (Poultry) and alternative crop operations. She has worked the majority of her NRCS career in the state of Arkansas and recently relocated to Kansas to serve as Supervisory District Conservation of the Burlington Management Unit. She enjoys working with other federal, state and local partners to help assist customers with putting conservation on the ground.

In addition to her professional experience with the agency, she has served as the secretary of the Arkansas NRCS Civil Rights Advisory Committee and secretary of the Arkansas Chapter of NOPBNRCSE. She currently serves as treasurer for Kansas Chapter of NOPBNRCSE, Northern Plains Regional Representative of NOPBNRCSE, and Greater Kansas City UAPB/AM&N Alumni Chapter Secretary. In her spare time, she loves spending time with family, friends and her sorority sisters of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. She also adores reading, traveling, planning road trips and learning about tiny houses. Faith, Family and Friends are the cornerstones of her world. She is the proud puppy parent to Waffa and oldest of two daughters born to Earl and Jacqueline Young. Her younger sister, Earlisher, is the proud mom to her adorable nephews Elijah and Ta'Kai.
